

TOUR COLORADO BIDS A FOND FAREWELL TO EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Durango, CO, March 2019 - Carrie Whitley, the Executive Director of Tour Colorado, is resigning her position at the end of March 2019. Carrie has filled a large hole in Tour Colorado's leadership since 2012 and will be missed greatly as the Executive Director.

Carrie, an industry leader, has built up Tour Colorado from an organization that was suffering, to one that is now strong and viable. She is resigning because of new commitments to the travel industry. It is the hope of all Board Members of Tour Colorado that she succeeds with her new endeavors.

In Carrie's resignation email she stated:

"It has been a pleasure being a part of Tour Colorado growing into a healthy and active organization with a bright future. I'm proud of all we have accomplished, and I have no doubt the Board with the new director will continue building on the successes ahead."

As Tour Colorado says farewell to Carrie Whitley as the Executive Director, the Board hopes to find a new Executive Director with the commitment and strength that will carry on what has been built and continue to grow the organization.
